

Compass Video - MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

This statement is made by Compass Video in accordance and compliance with the relevant obligations under the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015.

About Compass Video

Compass Video is a leading independent video production and animation company. Compass Video is a limited company and not part of any wider organisation or umbrella company. Compass Video primarily operates in the United Kingdom.

Suppliers and Due Diligence

Compass Video is committed to running our business responsibly and to ensuring that no form of modern slavery or human trafficking occurs in any part of our operation or supply chain.

The core business of Compass Video is the production of video content. We are not aware of any issues of modern slavery or human trafficking in our operation or supply chain. Compass Video carries out risk assessments of suppliers before hiring a supplier and as a result of that assessment and the nature of our operation, we consider that the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chain to be low.

Compass Video expects all third parties with which we deal to observe this commitment and to comply with all local laws and regulations including in relation to modern slavery, human trafficking and anti-bribery and corruption.

OUR POLICIES AND CONTROLS

Compass Video ensures all staff and suppliers read, understand and agree to our code of conduct and anti-bribery policies. Compass Video will review and update all measures where relevant annually.

APPROVAL

This modern slavery and human trafficking statement was approved by the Board of Directors of Compass Video on 1st March 2019